

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, October 10, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Delta prison closes

Regional jails' funds diverted to pay privates

Separate business liability bills OK'd

MEMA: Bioterrorism readiness goal

Day-care rules changes delayed

$110M in bill for bases

Disaster loans approved

Nissan staff includes 542; thousands to come aboard

Editorials

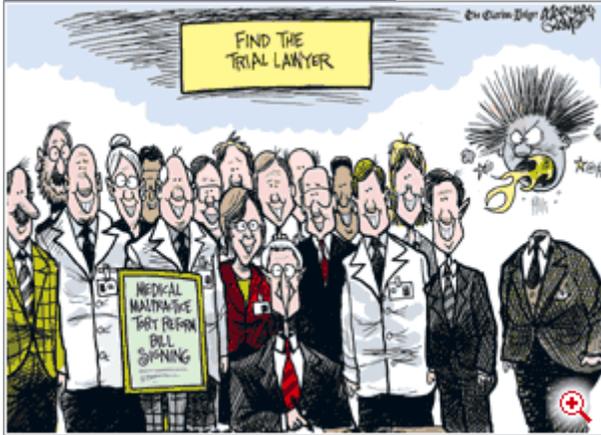

Tort reform II: Many issues the same as medical

Prison bill: For $25M, compromise worthwhile

Iraq: Attack should be no deterrent

Pearl schools: Voters showed pride in schools

Mistakes should not earn an award

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Judge Diaz used lawyer's condo

Delta private prison closes its doors

Senate, House pass liability bills

Doctors: Tort reform means better days

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Civil justice bills pass both chambers

EDITORIAL: Telecommunications firm makes its place in history

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Mississippi Senate votes to limit jury awards against corporations

Editorial 10/10: State can't ignore fair school funding

Hattiesburg American

Legislature takes on tort reform

Area legislators hope to use lessons from medical debate

Public wins battle over tort reform

Meridian Star

Pride, expansions mark Howard Industries

• Insurance climate still 'precarious,' says George Dale

• Part of the job is done

Laurel Leader-Call

Commissioner speaks out on insurance problems

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

Hale discusses county's economic climate, future

The Clarksdale Press Register

Impressive roster supports longer terms for judges

Daily Times Leader West Point

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

TORT REFORM: May our legislators do what's right

REFORM: Legislature moves in right direction

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

Everyday working people suffer with tort reform

Tort isn't broken; don't fix it

Enterprise Journal McComb

Legislation should ease doctor crisis

The Natchez Democrat

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Lawmakers turn to civil justice

Mississippi's water has improved in last 30 years

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula

The Picayune Item

Legislature turns to civil justice system

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

Lawyers' group targets Lincoln County senator

Electronic 'food stamps' now being used in county

The Daily Star Grenada

Grenada doctor not optimistic

Civil justice system eyed by Legislature

Probe of some lawyers and judges may influence judicial reforms

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Sam Hall: McRae's beat could be that of high court 10/9

Charlie Mitchell: On reform, first do no harm 10/10

Bill Minor: Greed and power brought down Sen William Burgin Jr 10/10

Stateline.org

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times

The Times-Picayune New Orleans

Weekly Mississippi Newspapers